Music

AT THE HALL

1

All boys at The Hall receive a first class music education through a comprehensive programme of Ensemble work coached by highly skilled visiting staff members, all of which support the curriculum.

2

Many of the high profile events during the course of the year have music at their core and high standards are achieved and expected at all levels.

Junior

SCHOOL MUSIC

3

During curriculum lessons, boys in Reception learn about all of the orchestral instruments that they can learn at The Hall.

4

In the Spring Term, all boys also have a series of small group taster sessions on string instruments (violin, viola, cello and double bass) with our string specialists.

5

From Year 1 onwards, boys will have an opportunity to learn an instrument at school.

6

They can choose between piano, string instruments (violin, viola, cello, double bass), or woodwind, (recorder, flute, oboe, clarinet and bassoon). Taster sessions take place in the Spring Term for boys to try an instrument.

7

Boys who want woodwind or brass tuition start on recorder if they are not big enough to handle the physical demands of a larger instrument.

8

Boys learn the recorder as part of the music curriculum in Year 2 and 3.

9

Brass instrument tuition normally starts in Year 3 due to the physical demands of the instrument however, exceptions can be made on an individual basis.

10

Boys are limited to missing only one academic lesson per week.

11

This means that if a boy learns more than one instrument, one lesson will be fixed either before school, after school or during playtime after lunch.

12

However, please note that we only have a limited number of places available for pupils who want to learn more than one instrument.

13

Any boys wishing to learn a second instrument in school need the recommendation of The Assistant Director of Music in the Junior School and the Head of the Junior School.

14

Lessons taught during the school day will rotate as widely as possible throughout the academic timetable.

15

We treat each academic subject as equal and as such, parents and boys cannot request to miss one particular subject in preference over another.

16

Year 2 have an instrumental concert in Autumn and Spring Terms.

Year 3 have an instrumental concert in Autumn and Summer Terms.

17

Year 1 boys have an instrumental concert in the spring and summer terms.

18

Boys will gain experience in how to introduce themselves, play their piece and acknowledge applause afterwards. This is a very friendly and supportive forum to introduce boys to the world of performing.

19

Parents are warmly invited and encouraged to attend these concerts. Boys learning instruments externally are encouraged to perform in these concerts.

20

All string or woodwind/brass players in Year 2 and 3 (minimum standard applies) are invited to join either the Junior School String Orchestra, Band or Recorder Ensemble.

21

Rehearsals take place before school or during the school day.

22

All boys in Year 3 are invited to join the Junior School Choir.

23

The orchestra, choir and band regularly perform during important school events (including the prestigious Gala Concert).

24

Apart from class assemblies and year group productions, the Music School is also responsible for coordinating the annual Christmas Carol Service where all the boys in the Junior School participate.

Timetabling

25

Over any given week, hundreds of instrumental lessons are delivered by the 31 VMT of the Music School. These lessons are co-ordinated by the school but remain a private contract between the VMT and parents.

26

The vast majority of these lessons take place during the school day, while a small number are held before and after school.

27

It is unavoidable that a boy will miss an academic lesson for an instrumental one.

28

If a boy learns only one instrument, this lesson will rotate as widely as possible throughout the academic timetable. This rotation, however, is governed by the boy's availability and his teacher's hours.

29

If a boy learns two instruments, we will aim to arrange one of these outside of academic lesson time. We treat each academic subject as equal and as such, parents and boys cannot request to miss one particular subject in preference over another.

Lessons
AT HOME

30

We appreciate that some families prefer their sons to pursue their musical interest out of school.

31

We make every effort to ensure that boys who learn an instrument out of school have the same opportunities for performing as those who learn in school.

32

We would ask you to inform us if your son is having lessons out of school so that we may involve him in appropriate school activities.

Missed
INSTRUMENTAL LESSONS

33

If a boy misses an instrumental lesson due to an official school activity (published in the termly calendar), the lesson will be made up by the VMT or parents will be reimbursed by the VMT at the end of the academic year.

34

Instrumental teachers will also make up lessons if they were absent due to illness or other professional commitments.

35

Lessons will not be made up if boys are ill or have missed lessons due to extra-curricular activities, including visits to senior schools.

41

A contract is issued between the instrumental teacher and parent at the beginning of each academic year, and each instrumental lesson invoice details the date by which notice must be given in the event of a parent or boy wishing to discontinue lessons.

42

You can contact your son's teacher via their preferred email address – or by any other means they provide.

All the string ensembles, as well as the Senior School Brass Quartet and Wind Quintet, participate in this prestigious event where they have master classes with an external Chamber Music Specialist.

75

The Festival is concluded with a concert that celebrates this extraordinary tradition at the school.

Class
CONCERTS

76

All boys in Years 4, 5 and 6 will have the opportunity to play a piece in the termly class concerts.

The

BIG SING

The Big Sing is an annual event where the whole school comes together for an evening of inspiring communal singing as well as a slightly competitive house singing competition.

Jazz
CONCERT

82

In the Spring Term, parents, staff and pupils come happily together as an audience for the annual Jazz Concert in a live music venue in Central London.

67

83

All the Jazz Bands, as well as some of the percussion groups, perform together with the dedicated Jazz staff. This is a concert not to be missed!

Carol SERVICE

84

The Carol Service is one of the Chapel Choir's highlights every year.

85

Joined by professional singers, the Chapel Choir leads the congregation in some very fine hymn-singing and solo items during the School's annual carol service.

86

This is a very popular event attended by the both the Middle and Senior Schools. There is limited seating, so come early to avoid disappointment.

Music
EXAMINATIONS

87

External Music Examinations through the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music (piano, voice and orchestral instruments), Trinity and Guildhall (drum kit) and the Registry of Guitar Teachers (rock guitar) are organised throughout the year.

88

Instrumental teachers normally enter boys for these examinations (with parental consent), but parents are welcome to contact the Director of the Music School if they would like to enter their son if he is taught by an external teacher.

89

Closing dates for entries will be communicated in the Music School's weekly newsletter.

Band
NIGHT

90

For the past six years, the Parent's Association and the Music School have joined forces to put together their own Glastonbury Festival style evening!

91

Boys in Year 7 and 8 will have some time during the last part of the Summer Term's class music lessons to form their own bands.

92

Informal bands that wish to perform at Band Night will have to be auditioned and will be allocated a mentor to refine their performances.

Gala

93

The 2020 Gala Concert will take place on Tuesday 17th March at the Royal Festival Hall.

94

The main objective of this concert is to celebrate and showcase the musical talent across all three schools at The Hall.

75

95

A variety of music groups, string ensembles and orchestras will be selected to participate in one of the highlights in the school's music calendar.

Music

TECHNOLOGY

96

Music technology is becoming increasingly important for anyone who plays an instrument.

97

On top of mastering an instrument, knowledge of music software and hardware is becoming more and more important. Not that long ago, a recording studio was run by specialists wearing white laboratory coats trying to make all the analogue equipment and reel-to-reel tape machines work. With the advent of digital equipment, music technology is now much more accessible to everyone, and the white laboratory coats are optional!

98

The Hall School Studio is shaped specifically to the school's needs. We can record ensembles or soloists, teach digitally programmed music, record speeches, presentations and plays, create multi-media for the School's website, produce CDs and DVDs of school performances, edit location recordings from any concert venue, and produce interactive accompaniments for music lessons. All of these are recorded, mixed and edited in a controlled, professional-standard environment.

78

99

The Hall has a Music School that is inclusive, successful and creative. There are a great number of boys who play instruments and take part in ensembles. The studio also means all these boys could have a recording of their performances and can take advantage of the interactive benefits.

100

However, a studio also brings in other pupils who play no instrument, particularly those with interests in computers and technology. This enables collaboration between differently talented boys, thus expanding the areas of expertise of all of them.

101

The studio is located in the heart of the Music School. There is a custom-designed, acoustically treated control room and two separate performance spaces.

79

102

All spaces are linked and performances are captured using the school's bespoke microphone collection, class A microphone amps and the very latest digital technology. The teaching of editing and mixing, using both software and classic hardware, is also a feature of the school's new state-of-the-art music technology suite.

Music
TOURS

103

An International Music Tour is organised for boys in the Senior School and will be held once every three years.

104

The next Music Tour of South Africa will take place during October 2019.

105

The boys are expected to raise money that will be donated to a noteworthy music education cause in South Africa.

106

The itinerary normally includes various concerts and performances, visits to schools, interaction with local musicians, learning of new musical skills (including African drumming), safaris and visits to important landmarks and places of historical interest.

Trips

107

As part of the class music curriculum, every year group will have a one day trip to enhance their learning experience.

108

Trips form part of the curriculum and will be subsidised by The Hall.

109

In Year 4, the trip will be enriching the boys' module on Musicals.

110

The study of the History of Western Music in Year 5 will be enhanced by a museum visit with direct relevance to one of the topics studied.

84

111

In Year 6, the trip or workshop will revolve around World Music.

112

Year 7's trip will focus on the technical side of performing arts, or Theatre Craft.

113

In Year 8, the focus will be on Music Technology.

Instrument
STORAGE AND INSURANCE

114

Boys may store their instruments in the Music School storage areas during the day, but they are encouraged to take them home when they are not needed, in order to practise.

115

The doors into the Music School may be unlocked by using the code between 7.30 and 9.30am and 3.30 and 5pm, but are locked at other times for security reasons.

87

116

Parents are required to make sure their son's instrument is fully insured on their own household policy, which should include provision for when their instrument is not at home.

117

The School cannot be held liable for loss or damage to instruments whilst on School premises.

Weekly

NEWSLETTER

118

A weekly newsletter is published on Friday afternoons to emphasise certain events and rehearsals, as well as everything else we would like you to know.

119

The letter is distributed electronically, via Firefly and parents are requested to familiarise themselves with the content.

Appointments

WITH THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

Parents are encouraged to make appointments to see the Director of Music to discuss their son's progress or any other music-related issue.
